ORDER

VICTOR MARRERO, United States District Judge.

The Government (see attached letter), requests that an initial conference for the above-named defendant be scheduled for January 31, 2020 at 3:30 p.m. The initial conference shall be scheduled for January 31, 2020 at 3:30 p.m.

Both the government and counsel for the defendant consent to an exclusion of the adjourned time from the Speedy Trial Act to January 31, 2020.

Re: United States v. Eddie Wise,
20 Cr. 16 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

The Government writes to respectfully request (1) that the Court schedule an initial pretrial conference in this matter on January 31, 2020 at 3:30 p.m., and (2) that time between today and that conference be excluded pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act.

Following his arrest on or about December 10, 2019 for Hobbs Act robbery, conspiracy to commit the same, and use of a firearm in furtherance of a crime of violence, the defendant was presented on December 11, 2019 before the Honorable Sarah Cave, United States Magistrate Judge. Judge Cave ordered the defendant detained on December 16, 2019. On January 7, 2020, a Grand Jury in this District returned a three-Count Indictment against the defendant. On January 8, 2020, the Court referred arraignment to Magistrate Court and indicated that it was available for a pretrial conference on January 31, 2020 at 3:30 p.m.

The Government respectfully requests the Court to schedule the pretrial conference for that date and time. In addition, and with the defense's consent, the Government further requests that time be excluded between today and January 31, 2020, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), in order to allow the parties time to (1) produce and review discovery, and (2) engage in discussions regarding a potential pretrial disposition of this matter. The Government respectfully submits that the proposed exclusion would be in the interest of justice.
